BOMBAY LOCAL BOARDS (MYSORE AMENDMENT) BILL, 1957.

Motion to consider

Sri R. CHENNIGARAMIAH (Minister for Local Self-Government).—Sir,

“I beg to move that the Bombay Local Boards (Mysore Amendment) Bill, 1957, be taken into consideration.”

Mr. SPEAKER.—Motion moved:

“That the Bombay Local Boards (Mysore Amendment) Bill, 1957 be taken into consideration.”

*Sri R. CHENNIGARAMIAH.—Sir, this is a very simple piece of legislation which is non-controversial. At the time when the term of the Local Boards in Bombay Karnataka was expiring, the Legislature was not in session. As stated in the Statement of Objects and Reasons, Government want to introduce uniform legislation throughout the new Mysore State. So the term of the Bombay Karnataka Local Boards had to be extended. Since the Legislature was not in session Government were obliged to issue an Ordinance to extend the life of these Local Boards. Now we have brought before this House this small amending Bill to replace that Ordinance. Since it is non-controversial I hope the House will give its acceptance to it.

*Sri K. KENCHAPPA (Hiriyur).—I would like to know when the Local Boards Committee was constituted, how many times its life was extended and for what purpose it is being extended still further.

Mr. SPEAKER.—There is no Committee as such. The law has already been passed in the former Bombay State
